DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

LAWYERS for JUSTICE, PC
 410 West Arden Avenue, Suite 203
 Glendale, California 91203

COMES NOW, Plaintiff JOAN WILKINS ("Plaintiff"), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The "amount in controversy" for the named Plaintiff, including claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys' fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court "original jurisdiction in all other causes" except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, employ individuals, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of Los Angeles. Moreover, Defendant CARGILL, INCORPORATED's agent for service of process is located in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff JOAN WILKINS is an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Defendant CARGILL, INCORPORATED, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, an unknown business entity, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California.

7. Defendant CARGILL ANIMAL NUTRITION at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, an unknown business entity, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California.

8. Defendant CERRI FEED & SUPPLY, LLC, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California.

9. At all relevant times, CARGILL, INCORPORATED, CARGILL ANIMAL NUTRITION and CERRI FEED & SUPPLY, LLC were the "employer" of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California state laws and statutes.

10. At all times herein relevant, Defendants CARGILL, INCORPORATED, CARGILL ANIMAL NUTRITION, CERRI FEED & SUPPLY, LLC and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and consent of each defendant designated herein.

11. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

 410 West Arden Avenue, Suite 203
 Glendale, California 91203

12. Defendant CARGILL, INCORPORATED, CARGILL ANIMAL NUTRITION CERRI FEED & SUPPLY, LLC and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as "Defendants."

13. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

14. Plaintiff brings this action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

15. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years preceding the filing of this Complaint to final judgment.

16. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

17. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than seventy-five (75) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom she has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

18. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;

 410 West Arden Avenue, Suite 203

- b. Whether Defendants' had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked, missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class members;
- d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members during their employment;
- h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
- i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174(d);
- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;

LAWYERS for JUSTICE, PC
410 West Arden Avenue, Suite 203
Glendale, California 91203

- 1 m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary 2 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and 3 n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to 4 compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

5 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

6 19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other
7 persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

8 20. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-
9 exempt employee, from approximately August 2012 to approximately March 2013, in the State
10 of California.

11 21. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other class members and classified them as 12 hourly-paid or non-exempt, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked, missed meal
13 periods and/or rest breaks.

14 22. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class
15 members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other class members'
16 employment and to supervise their daily employment activities.

17 23. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 18 Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff
19 and the other class members.

20 24. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other
21 class members.

23 State of California.

24 26. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day,
25 and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

1           27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
 2 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or 3 non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing
 4 to pay them for all hours worked, missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of 5 California law.

6           28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
 7 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
 8 certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime
 9 compensation.

10           29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
 11 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
 12 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage
 13 Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

14           30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
 15 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
 16 all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class
 17 member's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal
 18 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class member's
 19 regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

20           31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
 21 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
 22 all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class
 23 member's regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest
 24 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class members'
 25 regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

26           32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
 27 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive

 3 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive

 5 meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all such wages owed to them
 6 at the time of their discharge or resignation.

7 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
 8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
 9 all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other class members did
 10 not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest
 11 period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

12 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
 13 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
 14 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, they did

 16 included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the

18 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants

 26 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against CARGILL, INCORPORATED; CARGILL ANIMAL NUTRITION;

CERRI FEED & SUPPLY, LLC; and DOES 1 through 100)

49. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 48, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

50. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis, including any incentive pay.

51. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (4) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

52. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

53. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

54. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

55. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members, including failing to properly calculating the overtime rate.

56. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

57. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against CARGILL, INCORPORATED; CARGILL ANIMAL NUTRITION; CERRI FEED & SUPPLY, LLC; and DOES 1 through 100)

58. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 57, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein. At all relevant times, the IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by Defendants. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

59. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

60. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an

1 employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the 2 employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except
 3 that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may
 4 be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period
 5 was not waived.

6 61. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were
 7 scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive
 8 their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods
 9 longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30)
 10 minutes and/or rest period.

11 62. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were 12 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of six (6) hours were required to work for 13 periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty
 14 (30) minutes and/or rest period.

15 63. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
 16 Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to compensate
 17 Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium for work performed during 18 meal periods.

19 64. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
 20 class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 21 226.7.

22 65. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
 23 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

24 66. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
 25 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one
 26 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that 27 the meal or rest period is not provided.
